

Eternally Grateful.

I was a Multiple.

154 personalities.

M.C.S. - Multiple Chemical Sensitivities in a world where perfumes; scented products of all kinds abound; now, the norm. And a complex threatening problem for me.

Also, unwanted by parents, through no fault of their own, I became R.A.D., a loner who couldn't connect with others. And let's add a sexual assault to the mix. And an attempted rape.

NAET. Introduced to me by our Precious Father after my asking Him for total healing once I became aware that one of my many problems was because I was a multiple.

I'm convinced that God doesn't wear a watch nor does He own a calendar.

18+ years later, from one journey to another, I ended up at Dr. Gary Johnson's office.

Dr. J is perfection with naets (also with nutrition and adjustments). That's why God sent me to him.

With everything else, who knew I was terrified by being vulnerable though, in hindsight, that now makes perfect sense to me. It was just another one of those healing NAETS that Dr. Johnson excels at. I'm no longer terrified by being vulnerable.

I am me because of God. I am me because of Dr. Johnson and his extraordinary naets.

NAETS; NUTRITION; ADJUSTMENT. He excels.

I made it. I am me. Healthy. Now, with a "normal" life ahead of me.

Thank You, God. Thank you, Dr. Johnson and that relentless, brilliant mind of yours.
